What Gen Z Actually Cares About

Forget billboards and boring ads. They want:

- Creators > Celebs (Because real > rehearsed)
- Memes > Marketing (If it ain't funny, it ain't viral)
- Experiences > Impressions (IRL moments that slap)

And they crave:

- 🔥 Interactivity (polls, games, confession walls)
- 👁️ Authenticity (raw, unfiltered, savage content)
- 🏆 Rewards (merch flex, shoutouts, bragging rights)

UGC = Gen Z's Love Language

Gen Z doesn't want to be marketed to.
They want to co-create the hype."

We've seen it firsthand
at college fests:
Students don't just attend — they document.

A single meme or reel can start a UGC chain reaction.

80% of attendees post if there's something fun to flex.

Globally:
84% of Gen Z say they've been convinced to make a purchase based on UGC.

28%

4x

UGC-based ads get 4x higher click-through rates and 50% lower cost-per-click.

Instagram UGC posts have a 28% higher engagement rate than brand-created content.
It's not just content. It's credibility.
